The Clark Journal of Theology encourages biblical scholarship and theological thinking in relating the Gospel message to our socio-political, cultural, and religious contexts in North East India and beyond. It also encourages scholars from various fields and branches of study to share information, interact and study the contextual issues and problems toward providing Christian witness and critical theological voice in the ongoing ministry and needs of the Church and Society, from an Evangelical and Ecumenical perspective.

The Clark Journal of Theology (ISSN : 2455 - 5789) is published bi-annually in the months of June and December by the Clark Theological College. Subscribers may send their subscriptions and orders for the Clark Journal of Theology to the Clark Theological College, Aolijen, Mokokchung- 798601, Nagaland-INDIA.
